State Stands Out As One of Cold Spots

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30 (AP)—New York state stood out today as one of the coldest sections of the country, and the Weather Bureau saw no substantial relief in sight.

The temperature fell to 15 below zero at Corten and 14 at Ticonderoga, both in northern New York.

The Weather Bureau predicted generally continued cold and light snow tonight and tomorrow.

Other overnight sub-zero lows: Oneonta, 9; Utica, 2; Syracuse, 3, and Fort Plain, 2. Albany reported zero, Glens Falls 1 above, Rochester 2, Bear Mountain, 7; Buffalo, 12, and New York city 15.6, a new low for the season.

State Won't Hike Taxes in '48, Is Present Indication

Administration Source Says State Sales Tax and Full Income Levy Held Off

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30 (AP)—New York state taxes are unlikely to be increased next year despite a record state budget expected to hit $750,000,000, the Dewey administration has indicated.

Governor Dewey, a high source said yesterday, opposes additional levies beyond those already authorized in connection with the state's $400,000,000 veterans bonus.

The governor fears new taxes would lead to decreased production, the source said.

Dewey is expected to submit those views to the 1948 legislature, which convenes January 7. Dewey reportedly is attempting to keep the state's 1948-49 budget from soaring over $750,000,000.

Appropriations for 1947-48 totaled $647,000,000.

State revenues this year are expected to exceed $700,000,000 but a high fiscal official said the revenue level "could drop off $100,000,000 almost overnight with even a mild business recession."

A source close to Dewey said a state sales tax and restoration of personal income tax payments to the full 100 per cent were "about the only new sources" of revenue that would not disturb New York's employment and production.

Dewey was represented as "feeling" Continued on Page Nine

Six B-29 Fliers Are Safe in Nome

Alaska Bush Pilots Take Them From Frigid Wilderness

Nome, Alaska, Dec. 30 (AP)—Six of eight crewmen from a crashed B-29 were back to safety today through the hermits of two Alaska bush pilots, but five other men still are missing and feared dead in the frigid wastes of the Seward Peninsula 95 miles north of Nome.

The bodies of two men, thought to be members of the three-man parachute team that leaped to the aid of the stricken fliers Saturday night, were believed to have been sighted less than 500 yards from the crash site. A driver and dog team will attempt to locate them today.

An intensive search also will be continued for the pilot of the superfortress, Lt. Vern H. Arnett, Santa Ana, Calif., and Navigator, Lt. Frederick I. Sheetz, Keyser, W. Va.

Neither has been seen since they set out together Christmas night, 48 hours after their big ship plowed into the side of a low hill. They told fellow crewmen they would seek aid at the Eskimo village of Shishmaref, 50 miles to the north.

The daring rescue was performed by Frank H. Whitley of the Wien Alaska Airline and William Munz of the Munz Airline, both of Nome.

Wallace to Run for President On 'Peace, Prosperity' Platform

Republicans Cheer Wallace; Foreign Policy Is Issue

Democratic Fears Show in Key States, See Candidacy as Major Blow

Washington, Dec. 30 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace catapulted foreign policy into the presidential campaign today by embarking on the first serious third party effort since 1924 amid Democratic jeers and fears and Republican cheers.

Wallace's announcement that he will run for president as an independent candidate next year propelled American relations with Russia into the race as an issue.

It apparently shook the political structure, of the party he served as vice president and possibly reshaped the die from which the Republican nominee will emerge.

Politicians are almost unanimous in their judgment that Wallace has an even smaller chance of election than the late Robert LaFollette Sr., who carried only his home state of Wisconsin under the Progressive banner in 1924.

LaFollette polled 1,222,000 votes, more than many observers think Wallace will get despite a vast increase in the electorate.

But the same politicians agree that Wallace's attack in his Chicago radio speech last night on what he called the "bipartisan reactionary war policy" will require answering by the two major party candidates during the campaign.

Wallace said that policy "is dividing the world into two armed camps and making inevitable the day when American soldiers will be lying in their Arctic suits in the snow."

Similarly, the former cabinet officer's assertion that universal military training is "the first decisive step on the road toward fascism" may point up that controversial question as an issue.

Despite public statements discounting the effect of Wallace's move, there was ample evidence the Democrats fear its possible effect in such key states as New York, California, Washington, Illinois and Michigan.

Sen. Millikan of Colorado, chairman of the Republican Conference, named those particular hopes for 1948 had suffered "a major blow."

There is some doubt, however, that Wallace can get on the ballot in the states Millikan listed. In others election laws governing third parties definitely deny him that opportunity.

In Los Angeles, James Roosevelt, son of the late President and chairman of the California Democratic Committee, said the Wallace move will "bring closer to reality the dangers in a return to power of the Republican party."

Americans for Democratic Action, the self-styled "liberal" political organization, called Wallace's announcement an "invitation to disaster." The group said that whatever Wallace's own intentions, it is now "indisputable" that "the Communists are the machine behind the third party."

While Wallace apparently can count on the support of the American Labor party in New York, that organization may lose some of its punch by the possible withdrawal of the big Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union which has indicated it will back out rather than back a third party.

The former vice president has had organized labor backing in the past, but the indications are that none of the major labor groups will follow him in his new venture.

Will Review Situation Jack Kroll, director of the C.I.O.'s Political Action Committee, said in a statement it has been a "third party" policy "not to support a third party executive board" will review the situation at a meeting here late in January.

Former Vice President Bolts Democratic Party and Says Name-Calling Will Not Deter Him From Active Candidacy

Chicago, Dec. 30 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace says "I shall run as an independent candidate for President of the United States in 1948."

He announced he will campaign on a platform advocating "peace and prosperity" and said both Democrats and Republicans "stand for a policy which opens the door to war in our lifetime, and makes war certain for our children."

Asked if he hoped to be elected as an independent, Wallace replied "there's always hope."

Wallace made his announcement in a nationwide radio address (MBS) last night. A former Democratic Vice President and former cabinet officer under two Democratic Presidents, Wallace thus bolted the Democratic party which he had joined despite the backdrop of a staunch Republican family.

He also ended speculation about his political plans—speculation that had been started when he resigned as Secretary of Commerce at the request of President Truman. The resignation followed Wallace's opposition to Secretary of State James F. Byrnes's policy of a firm hand in dealing with Russia.

At the same time, Wallace announced that he had resigned as editor of the New Republic, a weekly publication, but said he will continue as a contributing editor and will write a "weekly page for the magazine. He became editor of the New Republic after resigning from the cabinet.

Wallace's announcement brought a statement from Sen. Glen H. Taylor (D-Idaho) that he is considering the possibility of running for vice president on a ticket headed by Wallace.

The former vice president, who was elected with President Roosevelt in 1940 and then dropped in favor of Harry Truman in 1944, said "thousands of people" had asked him to "engage in this great fight."

The Progressive Citizens of America and the new Progressive party of Chicago had suggested that Wallace enter the race. In addition, a Wallace spokesman said "persons from 18 states and the District of Columbia had made a similar request yesterday. The decision of the P.C.A. to endorse Wallace last week caused resignation of two of the organization's top officers.

The announcement brought immediate response from political leaders in the United States and Great Britain.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) said he regrets Wallace "cannot be fighting the Liberal battle—and for prosperity and peace—inside the Democratic party."

Senator McNamara (R-Calif.) said Wallace's campaign "will have a considerable adverse effect on the Democratic party not only in California but also in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan and possibly one or two other states."

In England, Richard II. S. Crossman, newspaperman and Laborite member of Parliament who talked extensively with Wallace during the American's visit there last spring, said "My very first thought is that Mr. Wallace's action increased the chances of a Republican victory in the next election." Government leaders in England withheld comment on "an affair of internal American politics."

At a news conference following his broadcast, Wallace said he would withdraw from the presidential race "should either of the major parties become definitely a peace party before the election."

Copies of Mr. Stang's communication and those of the War Department were sent to the War Department.

New York Will Get More Snow; Arrival Is Put Back Day; City Struggles to Normalcy

New York, Dec. 30 (AP)—A light snowfall was forecast for tomorrow as the metropolitan area continued today digging itself out from under Friday's record fall of 25.8 inches.

The new storm, which the weather bureau previously had predicted would move in late today, will strike sometime tomorrow but forecasters said it was diminishing in intensity and probably would be of short duration.

Grain Rationing Ordered by U. S.

Can Only Use 2,450,000 Bushels Between Now and January 31

Washington, Dec. 30 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson today put whiskey makers on grain rationing in order to save grain for food.

Acting under authority of the newly signed Anti-Inflation Act, the secretary limited grain use by distillers to 2,450,000 bushels between now and January 31, 1948.

This quantity compares with an average "use" of about 5,000,000 bushels a month during the first 10 months of this year.

The industry completed a voluntary 60-day production holiday December 24 in connection with the food conservation campaign inaugurated by the government early in the fall.

Reestablishment of controls in use during the war followed failure of the industry and the government to control the market.

Equipment Damaged, Man Injured in Tesoro Blaze

Fire Damages First Floor of Building at 650 B'way Early Today

A fire department hose truck and a city dump truck were damaged in an accident early this morning on Broadway near Henry street as firemen responded to fight a fire in the building at 650 Broadway owned by Joseph Tesoro.

Robert Hughes, a volunteer fireman riding on the rear step of the truck, was slightly injured in the accident, and was taken to Kingston Hospital.

Hughes, who lives at 235 Lucas avenue and works as a salesman in the territory around Newburgh, was treated at the hospital for a sprained muscle, and was sent home. He returned for X-rays today, the results of which are not yet available.

According to Fire Chief Murphy the building was not insured. The chief made no estimate of damage, but Joseph Tesoro said today that he thought the damage would amount to about $1,500.

The fire caused damage to the floor and walls of a large room in the rear of the first floor of the building, which Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy described as probably being a store room.

Chief Murphy said that the fire apparently started in the basement and ate its way up through the floor. He said the cause of the fire is as yet undetermined.

The building is owned by Joseph Tesoro and occupied by Tesoro and his brother, Philip. Also, there is a store on the first floor occupied by Ralph DiMuccio of 35 Derrin-bacher street.

Turns in Alarm The fire was discovered by Joseph Messinger of 166 Clifton avenue, Chief Murphy reported. Messinger, a Board of Public Works driver, had just unloaded his truck of snow at the Athletic Field and was proceeding north on Broadway, when he saw smoke. He

Government Decisions for Sovietization Can Be Speeded

Bucharest, Romania, Dec. 30 (AP)—King Mihai I, abdicated today and the Communist-dominated cabinet immediately declared Romania a "Popular Democratic republic."

In a broadcast proclamation, King Mihai said he had abdicated in the interest of the people.

He said the present changes in Romania had made an alteration in the constitution necessary, and he would not stand in the way of the people, who must be free to choose their own form of government. He abdicated at 3 p. m.

A proclamation to the people, signed by all cabinet ministers, declared Romania a "Popular Democratic republic."

Parliament is now sitting for ratification of these acts.

The 26-year-old monarch returned only recently from a trip to London and Switzerland, and reports that he was seeking government permission to marry Danish Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma.

Mihai attended the wedding of Princess Elizabeth to Prince Philip in London Nov. 20.

It was reported, without confirmation, that Mihai left at 5 p. m. for an undisclosed destination. His father, Carol II, twice renounced the Romanian throne.

Mihai twice ascended the throne of Romania—the first time when he was only six years old. He became king in 1927, after the abdication of his father. Carol renounced the throne rather than give up his love affair with red-haired Mme. Elena Lupescu.

A regency ruled for Mihai until Carol ascended the throne again after reconsidering his abdication. During World War II, Carol fled the country after the Nazi-occupied iron guard rose to power.

Mihai resumed the throne, and later succeeded in overthrowing Dictator Ion Antonescu in a coup on August 23, 1944. Mihai was honored by the Soviet government with the Order of Victory for his "courageous act."

Mihai's name was linked with that of Princess Anne, a member of the Danish-French family, during his recent trip to Switzerland. She was in Switzerland at the same time.

Brakes Are Removed Washington, Dec. 30 (AP)—King Mihai's abdication was viewed by American diplomatic authorities today as removing the last brakes on complete absorption of Romania into the Soviet sphere.

The king's formal consent was required to put into effect major decisions of the government which has been solidly Communist for only a few weeks. This had the effect, officials said, of causing Romania to lag somewhat behind Russia's other Balkan satellites in the process of Sovietization.

Mihai's departure may be followed by a speedup in the process although it is already far advanced. The key posts in the Romanian cabinet were taken over by Communists last month with a woman, Anne Pauker, becoming foreign minister.

Mihai was the last remaining monarch in the European states dominated by Moscow. Rulers of Yugoslavia and Bulgaria lost their thrones with the end of the war.

Father Bienlein, Pastor of Esopus Church, Is Feted

Redemptorist Pastor of Sacred Heart Church Is Transferred to New York City

At a reception held in the local fire house in Esopus Monday evening, the whole community, Catholic and non-Catholic alike, including representatives from West Park, Ulster Park, Esopus, and West Esopus, turned out to bid farewell to the Rev. George Bienlein, C.S.R., for 14 years pastor of Sacred Heart Church in Esopus.

Despite the difficulty of local travel over 150 people were present for the affair which, under the chairmanship of Gerard Murphy and Mrs. Robert House, turned out to be an exceptionally fine testimonial of gratitude to Father Bienlein. Entertainment was provided by the school children under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Coons, in charge of the Esopus school. Gerard Murphy then congratulated Father Bienlein in the name of the whole community. He remarked upon the priest's long years of faithful service in and around Esopus. He reminded the people of the thoroughness with which the tall, ever-friendly priest used to cover the hills and countryside of the whole Esopus area on his long and frequent walks, bringing a word of comfort and cheer to the sick and bereaved, and his priestly blessing to parishioner and non-parishioner alike. A purse of over $300 was then presented to Father Bienlein in the name of the local communities.

In acknowledging this tribute, Father Bienlein recalled his long association with Esopus. He had come there, he said, as a young priest just finishing his clerical studies, when the Seminary of Mount Saint Alphonsus was first opened in 1907. After several years of parish and home missionary work, he had spent seven years on the foreign missions in Puerto Rico. He returned to Mount Saint Alphonsus, Esopus, in 1927 as professor of Sacred Scripture and of Spanish. In 1933 he was given charge of Sacred Heart parish, which along with his classes in Spanish at the seminary, he faithfully attended for the past 14 years.

Father Bienlein then reminded his hearers that the Redemptorist Order of priests is organized somewhat like an army; and that as a consequence, when one of its members is transferred, he must pack almost immediately and travel to his new assignment, just the same as does a soldier. His own new assignment, Father Bienlein said, takes him as a parish priest to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer on East Third street, New York city, where the Redemptorists have a famous church well over a hundred years old.

Father Bienlein, recalling for a moment his boyhood, remarked that he was now 70 years old. He said he had been born and brought up in Baltimore of poor parents; that he had gone to work at 12; and that he owed his opportunities for his education to the Redemptorist priests, who had not only encouraged him as a youngster, but provided him with high school, college and seminary training.

The chairman then introduced the Very Rev. Dr. Edward A. Wuenschel, C.S.R., rector of Mt. St. Alphonsus, who paid a high tribute of praise to Father Bienlein's unfailing zeal in caring for Sacred Heart parish, and for all the people round about the Esopus area. He stressed the fact that for the past 14 years, Father Bienlein has served as a good will ambassador of Christ to all, helping to knit the Seminary in much closer with the civic functions of the town and county. He assured the gathering that he was delighted with the cordial relations existing between the seminary and the townspeople, and guaranteed the fullest cooperation for the future. He likewise informed his audience that the Rev. Joseph Wall, C.S.R., Father Bienlein's successor, who will arrive in Esopus next week from Boston, will do his utmost to imitate the fine example set by his predecessor.

The reception was brought to a close with the serving of refreshments.

New Year's Eve Party And Service Planned

The Reformed Church of the Comforter will hold a watchnight party and service on New Year's Eve. The party will begin at 8 o'clock, and movies, games, and square dancing have been planned for this part of the evening. At 11:15 a worship service will be held in the church, with a brief meditation by the Rev. R. J. Pontier. Miss Nancy Barnum will sing a solo at this devotional service.

Refreshments will be served during the evening, and each person who attends is asked to bring either sandwiches or cake. The members and the friends of the Church of the Comforter are invited to attend this party and service. Those unable to be present for the early part of the evening are urged to attend the worship service at 11:15.

TB Association, Guests Entertain At Ulster Hospital

Members of the rehabilitation committee of the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, and several guests attended a Christmas party for patients at the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital, Monday evening.

The party began at 7 p.m. as the group gathered around a Christmas tree in the auditorium for the program and distribution of gifts by Santa Claus.

The Junior Red Cross of Kingston High School with several members of the A. Capella choir sang carols and songs. This was followed by a skit given by Eleanor Davis.

After this portion of the program, the gifts which had been beautifully wrapped by members of the committee, were distributed to each patient. In addition to the gift, Mrs. Frederic W. Holcomb, as chairman of the party committee, had received enough money from the many friends of the hospital to present each patient with a two-dollar bill.

After distribution of the presents, members of the Junior Red Cross treated the patients and guests with ice cream and cookies. Fruit cake donated by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoffman was served. At the close of the party, one of the group, in behalf of the patients thanked the committee and the young people for the party.

Members of the Junior Red Cross and A. Capella Choir participating in the entertainment were:

ernment to get together on a voluntary program of restricted use of grain after explanation of the holiday.

The order is effective at midnight tonight.

Each distill plant will get a ration of grain. This will be 21 percent of its average monthly use of grain during the four months from December 1, 1946, through March 1, 1947, plus 1.4 times its daily mashing capacity.

Anderson prohibited the use of wheat under the grain allocation. Anderson's order does not permit transfer of grain quotas between companies. Transfer between different plants owned by one company is permitted, with certain limitations.

Anderson said no grain will be allotted to government-owned plants for use in the production of distilled spirits for beverage purposes.

The Anti-Inflation Act granted the government authority to allocate grain to distillers only for the period ending January 31. Congressional leaders said they expected to consider longer term allocation authority at the regular session opening in January.

Says Man Drove Away

Dale Van Valkenburg, attendant at the Johnsons' bus station on the Plank road, reported to police Monday night that a driver of a car stopped at that station and order 10 gallons of gasoline and some alcohol for the radiator. Van Valkenburg said that the driver drove off toward Kingston after receiving the gasoline when Van Valkenburg was in the station getting the key. The driver did not pay for the gasoline, which was valued at $2.50, the attendant said.

Will Review Policy

London, Dec. 30 (AP)—The British cabinet today put off until next week a meeting at which Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin will review the country's future foreign policy in the light of the Big Four's fruitless search for agreement on Germany. Ten Downing Street offered no reason for the postponement, but foreign office sources attributed it to current exchanges between the United States and Britain on problems which will affect directly Bevin's recommendation.

The clinic at the recreation center is from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., and another clinic is held from 4 to 5 o'clock the same afternoon at 23 East Wally street. The service is free of charge.

Late Bulletin

The second sporting goods store burglary within several days in the same business area occurred last night when the establishment of Walter Elston, 260 Fair street, was burglarized and $1,500 worth of goods, including guns and ammunition, were stolen.

Last Friday Potter Brothers sporting goods store, 294 Fair street, lost an estimated $500 worth of equipment, mostly guns and ammunition.

Talking to a reporter today, Mr. Elston said that the thieves took a variety of items from his store, not confining themselves to automatic pistols, rifles, pump guns and other hunting equipment. Toys, watches and apparel were removed.

Gilbert Elston, son of the proprietor, discovered the burglary this morning when he opened the store. The thieves broke in to the basement, forcing two doors to get into the store.

According to Mr. Elston, he is of the opinion that the burglars were young amateurs as they left a lot of valuable articles that they might have taken instead of some things nearby that were less expensive.

MODENA

Modena, Dec. 30—Fire of an undetermined origin destroyed the frame house on the former George Carney property, south of Modena village, at 4:30 Saturday morning. Modena firemen responded to the alarm but were hampered by snow-blocked driveways from the storm of the night before. Office of THE COUNTY ATTORNEY
County of Ulster
Phone 619
December 23, 1947.

To: The Honorable Board of Supervisors
County House
Kingston, New York
Gentlemen:

On Wednesday evening, December 3, 1947, there appeared in The Evening Leader, an article by one Charles Zaimas, Special Correspondent, under the headline, "County Buys $30,000 Headache for $1."

The article goes on to state that at the time the Board of Supervisors negotiated to purchase the Walkill Auxiliary Field from the War Assets Administration, there was a $30,000 action for damages filed against said airport by one Joel C. Thomas and Belle Thomas of Galeville, whose farm joins the 500-acre airport tract, and that they were represented by G. R. Bartlett, attorney, at Walden, New York.

A search was made of the County Clerk's Office in this county before the purchase was authorized and the records in that office indicated no claims or liens were filed against the said airport.

For the purpose of the record, you are advised that there are no claims against the Walkill Airport, nor were there any at the time we contracted to take it over.

Attached hereto are copies of letters from the War Assets Administration, as well as the War Department, Corps of Engineers, North Atlantic Division, stating that there are no claims.

December 23, 1947.

My investigation reveals that Joel Thomas and Belle Thomas, the alleged claimants, never lived in Walkill, never owned any property in that area, and nobody seems to have ever heard of them. In a conversation with G. R. Bartlett, he stated to me that he never represented Joel Thomas and Belle Thomas, and in fact, had never heard of them.

I might further state that the records of the Corps of Engineers reveal that there was a claim filed against an airport by one Joel Thomas and Belle Thomas but the airport was in Virginia.

I would like to further report that during negotiations by the committee of this board with the War Assets Administration in New York city, the question was asked about claims and they were informed by the representative of that office that there were no claims whatsoever.

pulled the alarm box at the corner of Broadway and Henry street, then parked his truck on the left side of Broadway, according to police, and went to help fight the fire.

As the Corbitts Hose truck, now being used at Wiltwyck station in place of Engine 3, arrived at the fire, it skidded on the icy pavement, its rear end swinging over and striking the front of the truck left by Messinger. The fire truck was driven by Fireman Glenn Southard, police said.

According to Fire Chief Murphy, the fire truck was proceeding down Broadway to the fire alarm box when it was flagged down by a city employee near the Tesoro building, which is some 200 feet uptown from the box. In attempting to stop, the truck skidded, causing the accident, Chief Murphy said.

Damage to the fire truck was a bent rear step, rail, and ladder bracket, and a broken ladder, according to the fire department. The Board of Public Works reported damage to its truck, a dump truck, as a bent steering column and axle, bent front door and bent window, and put the frame out of line. Chief Murphy said the fire truck would not be taken out of service.

Fire trucks which responded to the fire included those from Central station, Wiltwyck station, the H. Wicks Engine Company and Excelsior Hose. Temperatures between 11 and 13 degrees hindered the firemen in fighting the blaze and caused the water to freeze on the building and the ground, firemen reported.

Asks Wallace Support

Philadelphia, Dec. 30 (AP)—The Philadelphia Inquirer today quoted Michael Quill, international president of the C.I.O. Transport Workers' Union, as calling upon the union to back the third party presidential candidacy of Henry A. Wallace. A spokesman for the T.W.U. said, however, that Quill had been misquoted, stating that the transport union chief had merely urged the union membership last night to listen to Wallace's radio address in which he announced his candidacy and to pay "close attention" to what he said. Quill was unavailable.

Readers Service

What's in the cards for you in the New Year 1948? Flip the cards New Year's Eve and find out the general hilarity with a card fortune for everyone. A good way to start things rolling is to announce a "Card Lottery." Everybody wants to know when his (and her) wedding day will be, and you can at least give them all something to speculate on.

Place the whole deck of 52 cards in a hat and allow everyone to draw a card. The person holding the highest card will be first to march down that ever-loving aisle. The one holding the lowest will have a bit of a wait before trouseau-hunting.

In the case of ties, hearts are higher than diamonds; diamonds than clubs; clubs than spades.

Or, using the same rule of drawing the cards from a hat, you can tell an individual fortune for each card picked. Here, however, you have to memorize a list of meanings for each card and use your discretion when interpreting the meanings.

There are wonderful ways of telling fortunes for fun in our Reader Service booklet No. 65. Through the cards, stars, dominoes, tea leaves, and crystal ball. Perfect for winter parties, Valentine's Day, and other get-togethers.

Jail Suicide Try Means Guard for Hudson Seaman

Hudson, N. Y., Dec. 30 (AP)—Kennel A. Bailey, charged with first degree murder in the shooting of his wife, was recovering today from a leg wound which the Columbia county sheriff's office said was self-inflicted in a suicide attempt.

He is under 24-hour special guard in his cell at Columbia county jail, where he was returned Sunday after treatment at Hudson city hospital.

The sheriff's office said a trusty bringing food to Bailey late Saturday discovered the prisoner bleeding. Officials said the former merchant seaman had attempted to slash a leg artery.

Bailey is accused of slaying his 25-year-old wife, Kay, on December 19 soon after she had left a match company plant at nearby Greenvort.

District Attorney Thomas P. Kennedy said the shooting occurred after Bailey and Alvin Christy, 30, of Hudson had met Mrs. Bailey at the plant, and discussed an engagement which she had made with Christy.

Boston Blow-off

Tosses Things; No One Is Hurt Badly

Boston, Dec. 30 (AP)—Twenty-five persons were burned or injured by flying glass last night when a series of terrifying underground explosions tossed manhole covers high in the air, blew out fronts of a score of stores and windows of office buildings and left busy Dewey Square in the downtown section strewn with rubble.

Deputy Fire Chief William F. Quigley said half the injured were firemen who were burned prying open manhole covers after the first few of six blasts. None was apparently hurt seriously. Twenty were treated at City Hospital.

Quigley said the explosions apparently were caused by accumulation of gases in pipes under snow-covered streets. The nature of the gas was not determined immediately.

The deputy chief reported that bursts of flame shooting from the covers pried open by the firemen burned many of them on the legs. The blasts shattered windows as high as the eleventh story of office buildings and blew out every front window in one six-story office structure.

The explosions sent hundreds, including theatre crowds, scurrying for the cover of doorways and other shelters. Eye witnesses reported that the first blasts sent a shower of glass into the street and only the speedy retreat to cover saved many from serious injury.

Witnesses said the blasts sounded like the roar of heavy guns and were accompanied by illuminating flashes. The explosions could be heard 10 miles away from the square near the south railroad terminal.

Shortly afterward firemen and police had released nearby manhole covers, emergency crews from the Boston Edison Company pried open other big discs to prevent further explosions. They used extractors to draw out vapors remaining underground.

The explosions occurred on six streets in the Dewey Square area. Several witnesses reported that smoke and snow went shooting in the air with the first blasts and they had to duck and pull overcoats over their heads to safeguard themselves from flying fragments.

Laurence Is Ordered To Return to Job

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30 (AP)—The president of the State Police Benevolent Association has been directed to return New Year's morning to his job as a trooper, after more than a year of litigation over his dismissal.

Deputy State Police Superintendent George M. Seale said yesterday he had signed an order for the P.B.A. head, Roman J. Laurence, to return to his job.

The Appellate Division ordered Laurence's reinstatement in a unanimous decision November 13, declaring there was insufficient evidence to support charges of Superintendent John A. Gaffney on which Laurence was dismissed.

The court will hear argument January 6 in Rochester on the trooper's petition for extension of the order to provide for back pay.

The 38-year-old Laurence had served 15 years and was receiving renewal of Niagara Falls, to report to Troop A at Batavia, his former headquarters.

American Art Show Listed at I.B.M. Starting Sunday

An exhibition of art which has recently returned from a "good will tour" abroad sponsored by the State Department will be shown at the I.B.M. Country Club, South Road, Poughkeepsie, January 4 to 22, 2 to 5 p. m. daily. Entitled "100 Americans Since 1800," the exhibition is a cross section of the history of American art since 1800 and is being sponsored by the Dutchess County Art Association and the Board of Governors of the I.B.M. Country Club.

When shown under the auspices of King Farouk in Cairo, Egypt, the paintings which will be shown at the I.B.M. Club elicited high praise from leading continental art critics. The importance of this group of pictures to art lovers and students cannot be over emphasized as it represents a selection of the finest art in America since 1800.

Among the artists whose works will be represented will be George Inness, James Whistler, Winslow Homer, Mary Cassatt, Arthur B. Davies, William Glackens, John Marin, George Bellows, Ralph Blakelock, Robert Brackman, John Steuart Curry, Guy Pene DuBois, Thomas Eakins, Childre Hassan, Reginald Marsh, Samuel Morse, Albert Ryder, John Singer Sargent, Eugene Speicher, Abbot Thayer, Grant Wood and many others.

The paintings are taken from the permanent collection of the Department of Fine Arts, International Business Machines Corp., through the courtesy of Thomas Watson, president of the corporation.

Colleges in Dutchess county and vicinity are receiving special invitations to view the collection and certain days will be designated as "Vassar Day" and "Hard Day." Representatives of the Dutchess County Art Association and the Board of Governors of the I.B.M. Country Club will act as hosts.

A reception to which all are invited will be held at the Country Club Sunday from 3 to 6 p. m.

Orchestra Plays

At County Hospital

Johnny Knapp's Barn Orchestra entertained the patients at Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital with a concert Friday from 3 to 5 p. m. The concert was sponsored by the Kingston Musicians' Union, the cost being borne by the union from funds allocated by the American Federation of Musicians from recording and transcriptions. With Johnny Knapp on the base viol, Howard Ives on the saxophone, Joseph Vigna playing the accordion, and Earl Terwilliger as vocalist, the group played a pleasing selection of music in the popular vein which the patients enjoyed.

Mount Tremper Has Party;

Sewing Circle Reports Meeting The Community Christmas party sponsored by the Ladies' Sewing Circle and Mount Tremper Grange No. 1468 was held in the Reformed Church at Hall recently. Neighbors and friends from Mount Tremper and its twin village, Mount Pleasant, gathered early at the hall. Santa made a special visit with toys, candy and fruit for the children and gifts for the adults also. Refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle of Mount Tremper will hold its first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. Fred Hornback Wednesday, January 7. Plans will be made for the fair to be held in the summer. The ladies had a busy holiday season bringing cheer and visiting shut-ins and elder members of the circle who each received a poinsettia plant or box of chocolates.

Mrs. Anna Webber, president of the circle, was presented with a poinsettia by the ladies as a token of their affection and in recognition of her untiring efforts in behalf of the circle.

Maurice W. Burgher Weds Shirley Fowler At Port Ewen Church

Port Ewen, Dec. 30.—The wedding of Miss D. Shirley Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fowler, to Maurice William Burgher, 276 Johnston Circle, Sidney, son of Mrs. William Burgher, 18 Fairview avenue, Kingston, took place Sunday at 4 p. m. in a candlelight service at the Port Ewen Methodist Church. The Rev. Fred Stine, pastor officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Elting Ellsworth was organist. Miss Dorothea Groves sang "Until," "I Love Thee," and "Through the Years." The church was decorated with poinsettias and evergreens.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown with chantilly lace yoke and fingertip veil of champagne lace. She carried white carnations on a prayer book.

Mrs. Ralph Barrett of Maesena, as matron of honor, wore a Renaissance gown. In the role of bridesmaids, Mrs. Donald Griffin of Kingston, aunt of the bridegroom, Miss Elizabeth Jane Schweigel, cousin of the bride, of this village, wore gowns of cedar green satin. All carried old fashioned bouquets of roses and holly with a lighted taper in the center. The flower girl was Miss Sandra Deane, cousin of the bride, who wore a Renaissance red satin gown and carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Eric Fuegel of Cummington, Mass., was best man. Ushers were Donald Griffin, uncle of the bridegroom, of Kingston; Henry A. Deane, cousin of the bride, of this village; Wayne Johnston of Port Ewen was ringbearer.

A reception was held at the church house for 100 guests. Friends of the bride who served as hostesses were the Misses Rose Mellett, Jeanne DuBois and Irene Cune of Kingston and Mrs. Theodore Strakulski of Walden.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgher left for a wedding trip to Florida. The bride chose for her traveling ensemble a grey glen plaid suit with brown accessories. They will make their home in Sidney.

Mrs. Burgher is a graduate of New Paltz State Teachers College, class of 1942, where she was a member of Theta Phi Sorority. She attended Columbia University and is a member of the faculty at Public School No. 6 Kingston.

Mr. Burgher attended the University of Alabama and was a first lieutenant in the Army Air Corps serving as a flight engineer. He is now employed at the Scintilla Division of the Bendix Aviation Corp. in the engineering department at Sidney.

The bride was honored Friday afternoon at a tea and shower by Mrs. Donald R. Mur and Mrs. Ralph J. Barrett at West Hurley. Mrs. Arthur Fowler and Mrs. William Schweigel assisted the hostesses by pouring.

Others present were the Misses Irene Cune, Jeanne DuBois, Rose Helen Mellett and the Misses Raymond Howe, John J. Flaherty, Raymond Quick and Donald Griffin.

Miss Marie Flynn, 290 Broadway, entertained at a tea this afternoon at her home.

Miss Marianne Davis, of 53 Crown street entertained at an informal tea at her home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ten Hagen left today for their home in Atlanta, Ga., after spending the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ten Hagen, 58 St. James street.

Miss Virginia Schwenk, 152 Foxhall avenue, entertained her card club at her home Monday night.

Charles S. Ronder, a junior at University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa., and Robert A. Ronder, a junior at New York Military Academy, Cornwall-on-Hudson, are home for the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Ronder, 85 Johnston avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lynch gave a venison dinner and Yuletide party to a group of friends at their Indian-Fields home in Zena Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Russell of 83 Brewster street, had as their guests over the Christmas holidays their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth N. Wheeler and son, Kenneth, Jr., of Providence, R. I. and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Russell of Kingston. The Wheelers returned to Providence Sunday.

Catherine Ewel Is Bride-Elect Mr. and Mrs. George Ewel, 159 Lincoln street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Catherine Irene Ewel, to William Vogt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vogt, 56 Foxhall avenue. The wedding will take place in the Spring. Miss Ewel is employed at Kingston Knitting Mills. Mr. Vogt served three years in the army and is now employed by New York Telephone Co.

Don Cossacks Will Sing at New Paltz

The celebrated General Platoff Don Cossack Chorus will sing and dance at the New Paltz State Teachers College January 8, in the third program in the current New Paltz Artist Series.

This colorful chorus, long a favorite with American audiences, was organized in Czechoslovakia in 1926 under the patronage of the late Thomas Masaryk, who was president of Czech Republic. The members were Cossack exiles who had scattered throughout Europe and who were finally gathered together by Nicholas Kostroff, a former captain in a Cossack regiment.

The singers took the name of a Cossack general of the early 19th century and began their musical travels which eventually led them to a new homeland—America. Under the leadership of Kostroff the Chorus has built up a repertoire that covers the field of Russian song—the beautiful liturgical music of the Russian Orthodox Church, the haunting folk-songs, to which they add the wild Cossack songs with their exciting mixtures of interpersed shouts and whistling. Each program is brought to a thrilling close with exhibition of the wild, acrobatic dancing of the Cossacks.

Robert St. John, famous foreign correspondent and news analyst, will appear on the New Paltz Artist Series March 1, and the final program of the series will be given on April 13 by the College Community Symphony with Alice Smiley as violin soloist.

Buzzelli Receives Package In Paris Within Five Weeks

Sophie Miller has received a reply from J. Anthony Buzzelli in Paris regarding a package of food which she sent to him and which reached him in good condition within five weeks. Mr. Buzzelli, an artist who has spent some time in Esopus, is in Europe studying and painting and expects to return to the States in February.

He had previously written asking if some of his friends might send some food items to him since many articles were difficult to obtain. He says his paintings continue to sell and he may extend his stay. He is at Hotel de la Tourne, 4 Rue D'Alger, Paris 1, France.

Mr. Buzzelli recently made a trip to Prague which he described as "a rather brave looking but romantic city." Of the trip he writes, "The trip by auto from Switzerland through Germany to Prague was a terrific mixture of everything one wanted in Switzerland and to the misery heavy laden atmosphere of Germany, indeed a sad monument to war."

Mr. Buzzelli asks to be remembered to many acquaintances in this area.

Willbur Holy Night Mass

With the illuminated beauty of a Christmas tree serving as a backdrop for the singing of Christmas carols, the traditional Holy Night Mass was ushered in at Holy Name Church, Willbur. The outdoor setting inaugurated for the first time under the direction of the Rev. Joseph J. O'Rourke, was a public manifestation and expression of faith in the true Christmas message of the parishioners of Holy Name Church.

The interior of the church was decorated with evergreen and poinsettias in keeping with the season. The crib depicting the nativity, was made entirely of evergreen giving it a realistic outdoor appearance.

The Rev. Father O'Rourke in his Christmas message to the congregation stressed the conditions of the world today stating, "With all the strife and turmoil existing in the Holy Land, it was interesting to note that in the little town of Bethlehem was the only place that was truly peaceful on this Christmas Eve."

'Duke' Is Drowned

Sidney, N. Y., Dec. 30 (AP)—The life of "Duke," Doberman Pinscher who was cited for gallantry in action during World War I, was ended by a policeman saw the canine veteran swept under the ice by the

Stiles Says 35 Workers Added, Also Equipment

New York, Dec. 30 (AP)—James E. Stiles, publisher of the Nassau Daily Review-Star, Rockville Centre, N. Y., testified yesterday that 35 replacement workers and $18,000 in new equipment had been installed in the newspaper's composing room since November 10 when members of an A.F.L. union walked out.

Stiles was a witness in a National Labor Relations Board hearing on a complaint that the A.F.L. International Typographical Union and its affiliate, Nassau County Typographical Union 915, engaged in unfair labor practices under the Taft-Hartley Act. The complaint alleges the union refused to bargain collectively in good faith. The hearing continued today.

The publisher told Peter F. Ward, N.L.R.B. trial examiner, that on November 10 he sent a telegram to 30 composing room employees informing them the I.T.U. and its subordinate union "suddenly and falsely charged me with locking out employees of the composing room."

In the telegram, Stiles said he told the men "on that pretext your union officials are engineering what is in fact an illegal strike to prevent imposing room operation in direct violation of the contract presently existing between your union and the Review-Star Corporation."

Later, Stiles said, he wired the men again to tell them it would be necessary for him to find replacements unless they reported back to work November 12.

G. J. 'Mac' Waver, Stiles said he advertised for G. J. 'Mac' Waver, and Waver's to learn composing room and printing work and that after screening 75 to 80 applicants, 35 were put to work. Ten other "likely applicants" were sent to the Trenton, N. J., Times plant for training, he said.

The composing room at the Nassau Daily Review-Star has been an open shop since the middle of last year. Under cross examination by Alan F. Perl, attorney for the I.T.U., Stiles said he owned all of the newspaper's common stock and that approximately $350,000 worth of debenture bonds were owned "by me or three hundred people." He said the common stock has not paid any dividends for the past 10 years.

Asked by Perl if the newspaper is now "up for sale," Stiles replied in the negative. The publisher said the gross income of the newspaper for the year prior to November 10, last, was $1,300,000. With expenses for the same period totaling $1,240,000, he said, the newspaper showed a gross profit of $60,000 for the 12-month period.

He said the income was derived exclusively from circulation and advertising, with $500,000 accruing from the circulation department and $800,000 from advertising.

Stiles said the expense figure he named included interest on the bonds and funds drawn by him in his capacity as publisher.

cratic votes they will have a cinch in that state.

Similarly, the Colorado said he thinks Wallace will have any chances that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower may have for the nomination and increase the prospects of Senator Taft of Ohio, an announced candidate for the G.O.P. nomination.

Senator Wagner (D-N. Y.) said he thinks Wallace's announcement "will boomering in favor of the Democratic party."

"We all want peace, but not peace at any price," the New York senator said. "Henry Wallace is asking for that price as a price for peace at the Soviet dictator's price."

Without mentioning the late President Roosevelt by name, Wagner concluded his statement with: "Yes, the angels are weeping and there is a great man and a good friend of Henry Wallace who I feel sure weeps with them."

James G. Patton, president of the National Farmers Union, said in Denver that "undoubtedly" many of the union's 428,000 members will support Wallace but the organization itself will take no stand.

Economists Say Price Jumps Show No Signs of Decline

Washington, Dec. 30 (AP)—Wholesale prices edged nearer today the all-time crest of May 1920, and government economists say they can find nothing to indicate that 1948 prices will stop there.

With the exception of some items which slowed down the food group at least temporarily, wholesale prices on 900 commodities studied by the Bureau of Labor Statistics sailed unchecked past another postwar mark during the week ended December 20.

An index figure of 162.5 was recorded for that date by the B. L. S., which uses average prices prevailing in 1926 as its 100, or normal wholesale level. In May 1920, the bureau says prices averaged 167.2 per cent of the 1926 average. Relating the index points to percentages, there is less than 3 per cent difference in prices today and those existing in May 1920.

At the present rate of climb, wholesale prices should topple the 1920 high about the end of February, the economists say—and keep on going in contrast to the experience 27 years ago. Then the index dropped from 187.2 to 96 in May, 1931, just one year later. It struck a bottom of 59.8 in February, 1933.

The statisticians say employment holding near the 60,000,000 mark and demand for goods of all kinds appear likely to sustain wholesale prices next spring.

They declare that "political pressures" on both the Truman Administration and Congress for a halt in the price trend may alter the picture, but they shy away from any opinions on the best approach.

The B. L. S. consumer price index, described as representing actual cost of living to the householder, already has broken all records. It stood at a peak of about 165 per cent of the 1935-39 average on November 13, the latest available computation.

B. L. S. has no exact comparison with 1920 for its consumer index, but officials say the cost of living is higher now even though the wholesale index is lower. They explain this by saying the wholesale index includes many items which do not figure in the day to day operation of a household.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Wallace to Run

He also said the new party, as yet unnamed, "would support progressive Democratic candidates for Congress."

He said it was "too early to say" about choice of a running mate.

Announcing his decision to leave the Democratic party, Wallace said in his address:

"To those who have come to me asking the conditions for my withdrawal from the Democratic administration, I have said 'Let the administration repudiate universal military training and rid itself of the Wall Street-military team, that is leading us toward war.'"

"My terms to the Democratic high command have been well known. But their actions and finally by their words, they have said 'Henry Wallace, we welcome your support but we will not change our policies.'"

On foreign affairs—the issue which caused his departure from President Truman's cabinet—he said:

"I fight the Truman doctrine and the Marshall plan as applied, because they divide Europe into two warring camps. Those whom we buy politically with our food will soon desert us."

"We are restoring western Europe and Germany. * * * because we want to hem Russia in. We are going the same way as France and England after the last war, and the end result will be the same—confusion, depression and war."

"It just doesn't need to happen. The cost of the organization for peace, prosperity and progress is infinitely less than organizing for war."

"We who believe this will be called 'Russian tools' and 'Communists.' Let the fear mongers not distort and becloud the issues by name-calling."

Not for Russia, Communism. "We are not for Russia and we are not for Communism but we recognize Hitlerite methods when we see them in our own land and we denounce the men who engage in such name-calling as enemies of a human race who would rather have World War Three than put forth a genuine effort to bring about a settlement of differences."

"I insist that the United States will not be fully secure until there is real peace between this country and Russia and until there is an international police force stronger than the military establishment of any nation, including Russia and the United States."

On prices on the home-front, he said:

"The American people read of the fantastic appropriations that are being made for military adventures in Greece, Turkey, China—and billions for armaments here at home. Slowly it dawns on us that these newspaper headlines have stepped into our everyday lives at the grocery when we pay $1 for butter, 95 cents for eggs, and 90 cents for meat."

"We suddenly realize that we can't have all the people of the world getting ready for the next war without paying for it in our daily lives with less food, clothing and housing."

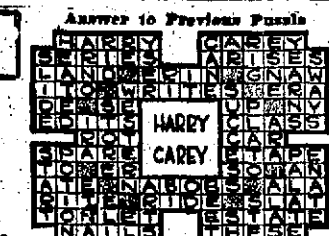

Third parties in America have been notably unsuccessful in gaining election of their own candidates although they have, on occasion, swung presidential elections.

In 1894, the "Mugwumps" comprised of disaffected Republicans, took enough votes away from Republican Candidate James G. Blaine in New York to swing that state to Democrat Grover Cleveland, assuring Cleveland's election.

In 1912, Theodore Roosevelt bolted the Republican party. In the election the total votes given Roosevelt and Republican Candidate William H. Taft were more than those for Woodrow Wilson, but Wilson was elected because of the split.

Tumor Clinic Meeting

A joint meeting of the committees from the Ulster County Medical Society and the Ulster County Health Department was scheduled this afternoon at the city laboratory to discuss the final plans for the proposed tumor clinic, which have been submitted by the architect, Harry Halverson. If these plans are approved by these committees, they will be submitted to the county health department for official consideration.

Cattle Diseases Are Discussed at Windham Meeting

At the December meeting of the Greene-Ulster Veterinary Medical Association in the Hotel Windham, Windham, two speakers from the Bureau of Animal Industry in New York state gave instructive talks on diseases in cattle.

Dr. W. S. Stone, assistant director of the bureau from Albany told the group about a new test for tuberculosis in cattle. Dr. Stone said that the new test has a definite place in the tuberculosis eradication program, and seems to be of special value in some of the so-called problem herds. Dr. Stone also reviewed for the group some of the new trends in thought regarding the bovine tuberculosis problem and possible public health aspects.

Dr. Asa Winter, another director in charge of Brucellosis work gave an excellent review of the Brucellosis problem to the group. Dr. Winter stated that a more modern consideration of this disease, with its tremendous potentialities in regard to public health, is resulting in a much more vigorous and aggressive policy of control. National aspects of the problem have even made it possible that a unified control will be set up for the entire country. In the light of this, New York state is proud of its five years of advanced ground-work in control measures.

Dr. Winter emphasized the importance of the part played in this program by the practicing veterinarians. The individual herd, he said, is the unit of control. A careful consideration of each herd with its own circumstances is the only way to arrive at the proper control measures for that herd. He stressed, therefore, that veterinarians must be ready to give up-to-the-minute advice to the herd owners in their efforts to attack the disease. The local veterinarian only, for instance, has the facts at hand to tell whether plan A or plan B should be used or when the situation warrants a change from plan B to plan A. Dr. Winter concluded by stating that Brucellosis work promises one of the biggest disease eradication problems ever experienced in New York state, and that the final goal is not only control of the disease but its actual eradication as a protection to both the health of the dairyman's herd and his family.

Purple and violet colors are said to go with sophistication.

Civic Committee Organizes to Assist in Youth Activities

Improved Recreational Setup Urged By Service Club Group

A movement to insure year-round recreational opportunities for Kingston's youth was started Sunday with the organization of the Civic Recreation Committee at a meeting attended by representatives of service clubs, the Department of Recreation and the Kingston Athletic Association.

The movement is the outgrowth of particular interest in youth problems by Hugo Wessler, retired watch manufacturer who now resides in Kingston, and the general feeling that the present recreational setup in the city is inadequate for off-summer activities.

Among the organizations represented were Kiwanis Club, G. Herbert DeKay, Rotary, Byron S. Chatham, Lions Club, C. Robert Cousins, Kingston Athletic Association, Don Williams and Dick McCarthy, Department of Recreation, Harry L. Edson, acting superintendent and "Pop" Fuhrman.

Mayor-elect Oscar V. Newkirk and Alderman-at-Large, elect, Charles J. Turck, also were present.

C. Robert Cousins, chairman of the Lions Club committee on recreational activities, was named chairman of an "Organization Committee" which will explore various phases of the recreational setup between now and Monday, January 12 when the next regular meeting is scheduled.

Serving with Mr. Cousins will be G. Herbert DeKay, of Kiwanis; Byron S. Chatham, of Rotary and Don Williams, of K.A.A. Mayor-elect Newkirk and Mr.

Williams Shift Is Now Useless Says Boudreau

Chicago, Dec. 30 (AP)—Manager Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians admitted today any defensive shift to halt Boston's Ted Williams now is useless and that the Red Sox slugger "ought to be a hitting champion for a few years to come."

Boudreau, who originated a defense against Williams in 1946 by concentrating fielders on the right side of the diamond, lauded Williams for being "cute" enough to "hit a few soft ones down the third base line."

That ended the usefulness of the Boudreau shift, Lou said, and he added that rivals will have trouble "getting Ted's goat from now on." "The whole idea of the shift was to bother Williams psychologically," explained Boudreau. "He was stubborn in 1946 and it hurt him late in the season and through the World Series when he tried to ram the ball to right instead of poking a few grounders to left field."

Boudreau said it was "quite obvious" that the pennant fight in the American League would be between the defending champion Yankees and the remodeled Boston Red Sox. "Even with Kramer and Kinder as help from the Browns, however, the Red Sox pitching staff will have to show marked improvement over last season to press the Yankees," he added.

Jimmy Ambrose New Matchmaker In Newburgh

Jimmy Ambrose, widely known New York city boxing instructor and trainer and former professional fighter, has been signed up as matchmaker for the Avalon Athletic Corp. of Newburgh. The Avalon promoters will stage professional fights at the Avalon Recreation Center, Cochecon Turnpike, Newburgh, beginning Monday, January 12.

Salvatore Muscarella, president of the Avalon Recreation Corp., said today that Ambrose is now making arrangements to match several outstanding pro fighters for the initial Avalon card.

Ambrose, who quit the ring in 1911 after a successful career as a bantam and flyweight, has spent more than 35 years in the fight game. From 1924 until 1932 he promoted amateur fights in Newburgh and Kingston, and since that time he has been active in metropolitan fistic circles as a trainer and instructor.

The promoters also announced today that they have secured bleacher seats for 1,500 spectators and will have chairs and box seats for 2,000 additional fans.

Wiltwyck Motors upset Fuller Sports, 48-44, in an overtime period after squandering a 20-19 halftime lead, and Chez Emile thumped the V.F.W., 61-36, in a Y League basketball doubleheader before 300 fans at the municipal auditorium last night.

Fuller's tied the score at 42-42 in the regulation game in the closing seconds, but Wiltwycks regained the offensive quickly in the afterpiece. Bob Niels stepped in for a set shot from sidecourt; Hunt slipped in unobserved for a layup after intercepting a pass.

The league correspondent did not mention how Fuller's final basket was scored.

Book Scores 15
Eddie Bock, of Fuller's, was the high scorer with 15 points, while Glaser and Krom had 11 and 12 respectively. Hunt was top man for Wiltwycks with 11. Niels tossed in 11 and Dougherty 9.

Chezy Emile made a strong finish to rout V.F.W. after a rugged 24-21 first half. "Link" Crosby captured scoring honors with 14 points. McElrath had 13 and Houghtaling 12. Goetzke, nine led the Vets, with Ebelheiser and Van Wagenen each sinking 8.

A tripleheader is on tap at the Y gym tonight as follows:
7 p.m.—Miron Lumber vs. V.F.W.
8 p.m.—Chezy Emile vs. Fuller Sports.
9 p.m.—Potter Bros. vs. Wiltwyck Motors.

Western Skiers Lead Intercollegiate Meet
Sun Valley, Idaho, Dec. 30 (AP)—Two far western teams set the pace with two from New England following close behind at the halfway mark today in Sun Valley's annual intercollegiate ski meet.

The University of Washington, with 549.7 points, led the way in today's five-mile cross-country jaunt. The four-day meet ends tomorrow with jumping events.

Washington was less than a point ahead of the defending titlist, the University of Utah, with 549. Middlebury College was third with 533.5 and Dartmouth fourth with 514.6.

Bowling

Before you read about last night's bowling scores, start giving some thought to your annual Kingston Bowling Association city tournament.

The city championships will be held the week of February 9, with the likelihood that 16 alleys will be used to expedite the bowling. Class A is 170 and up. Class A bowlers will be assessed $3.00 per man and event and the Class B kegler pays $2.50. The tournament will operate on an 80 per cent handicap which gives the intermediate and inexperienced keglers a definite advantage over the hotshots.

Competition in singles and doubles will be from scratch. Let's make it 100 teams or more. Kingston is a good bowling town. Let's prove it by showing a 100-team registration. If you desire any more information, see Ray Cord or "Red" Spaulding.

Cole Cracks 594
Milt Cole, Sr.'s 594 with 222 high single was the best performance in the Independent League which produced a fair batch of good scores. Cole flanked the 222 with 188 and 184.

Gene Vogel's 244 was the best single and the fireballing milkman rolled 151 and 177 for 572. Charlie Gruenewald had 536; Bobby Jones hit 545; Jack Hart, 532; Roland Post 545; L. Van Alstyne 201-564; "Pop" Van Alstyne 211-542; R. Henry 207; Eddie Marks 211-534; Bill Davis 525; Bob East 527; Freddie Schryver 224-566; R. Halbert 243-538; Cliff Davis 202-557 and Ray DuBois 544.

Arlensky Cracks 618
Miltie Arlensky's 246-618 blast set the pace for a best scoring session in the City Minor League. The graceful left hander had games of 197-246-173.

Ben Sklon came within a pin of scoring a "Dutch 200" in the opener and added 160 and 182 for 541. Larry Jacobs posted 200-556; Slight knocked off 246-598; Robinson batted 188-521; Norm Sande 210-540.

Other good scores were Chick Maurer's 201-563; Ausland's 188-552; Slight 225-560; Joe Dulin 181-224-575; Greenburg's 543; Clausi 517; Heron 209; Stalter 514; Ed Norton 516; Ed Schupp 199-524; Pavlich 181-529.

Levy Rolls 617
Meyer Levy's 186-242-209-617 string earned him the brass medal in the Good Neighbor circuit.

Members of the "500 Club" were: Ben Orloff 615; E. Levy 607; Murray Greene 505; B. Cohen 502; and Kessler 545. A couple of guys called "Blind" rolled 500 series but it was strictly by remote.

Don't forget what we said at the start of this column: You have an obligation as an A.B.C. bowler to support your annual championships.

Woodstock News

By Peg Hard

Woodstock, Dec. 30.—Ira Wolfert has sold the movie rights to his book "Tucker's People." Mr. Wolfert left his home in Lake Hill on Saturday for Hollywood where he expects to be for about 10 weeks. It is believed John Garfield will play the leading part in the new picture.

The snowstorm prevented many guests from attending the party given on Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Summers in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Doyle. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seaton and Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Chase.

Pete, Bob, and Dave Carlson came from New York to be with their mother, Mrs. Margaret Carlson at Christmas time.

Miss Anne Middendorf went by plane from New York to Mexico to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Sara Middendorf who will remain in Mexico for the winter months.

Maude and Miska Petersham had an accident on Friday while enroute to Alexandria, Va. The Petershams left Woodstock in the morning of the snowstorm. In Newton, N. J., their car skidded, ran into a pole, but they escaped without injury and continued their journey to the home of her sister, Mrs. Winifred Byrd where they will remain for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Cathy Chase entertained family and friends on Christmas Day in the Angelus, her home in Byrdcliffe.

Mrs. Frank Emerson, Lake Hill, was taken to the Kingston Hospital on Friday where she underwent an operation.

Eugene Schleicher, Woodstock, was taken to the Benedictine Hospital for observation on Saturday.

Mrs. Philip O'Dell, Woodstock, is recuperating at the Kingston Hospital following an appendectomy on Friday.

The Rev. and Mrs. Harvey L. Todd had as their guests for Christmas dinner, her aunt, Mrs. H. V. Pierce, and niece, Elizabeth H. V. Pierce, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Perkins and Edward, Jr., Woodstock.

Robert Ambrose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bertsche, New York city, was baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church, Woodstock, on Sunday morning.

Joan Mower, Frederick Mower, Buras Wilber, David Minor, Gunther Polak and Ann Wolfhardt were received into membership of the Dutch Reformed Church on Sunday morning.

Walter S. Van Wagenen, principal, Woodstock School District 2, has been in Syracuse for the week-end attending the convention for school principals.

Christmas Day, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosen had as their guests for dinner, Dorothy Ives, Wilna Hervey, Nan Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Berkowitz and sons, Harry and Bill, Mrs. Minnie Inglis, and Mrs. Mary Rowley, San Antonio, Texas, with her daughter, Mary Jane, and son, Ernest.

Mrs. Mary Rowley and her children are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Berkowitz.

Mrs. Juliana Force has returned to her apartment, 10 West 8th street, New York city, where many of her friends and family extended birthday congratulations to her on Christmas. Mrs. Force has been in the Harkness Pavilion Hospital for several weeks.

Jerry Jeronimek, who has been in the Halloran Hospital, Staten Island, for three weeks, returned to his home on Christmas Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lewis entertained for his mother, Mrs. Helen Burdette, at a breakfast party Christmas morning. The guests were the Misses Marguerite Graham, Mary Townley, Nell Louderbach, Mr. and Mrs. George Hard and Kay Donahue.

Mrs. Orestes Cleveland has resigned as publicity chairman of the Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen effective January 7, when Mrs. Cleveland will become associated with the Kingston Hospital.

For the holidays, Mrs. Cornelius V. V. Sewell, Sr., Rye, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius V. V. Sewell, Jr.

Students who have been away at school and are at home for the holidays are Audrey Webster, Harry Berkowitz, Roland Mower, Paul Graesser, Lee Marvin, Nancy Summers, Cory Sewell, Edward R. Perkins, Jr., Ellen O'Meara, Wolfe O'Meara, Victor Allen, Tommy Robinson, Hannelle Robinson, Bruce Whiteley, Tania Padwa, Jane Raymond, John Marvin, Warren Shultis, Jane Evers, and Donn O'Meara.

Wilna Hervey and Nan Mason entertained on Monday afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Berkowitz, Mrs. Mary Rowley and Mrs. Carl Eric Lindin.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hard have as their guest, her sister, Miss Kay Donahue of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Chase had two of their children with them on Christmas Day, Ned, Jr. and Mrs. Stephen Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kutzschbach, Bearsville, had as holiday guests her brother, Carl W. Kutzschbach and George Heineman, New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Butzard, Willow, have had to cancel their plans for a holiday house party and will remain with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Meisenhelder, East Williston, L. I., for the month of January.

Doctor and Mrs. William M. Hitzig and family are in their Bearsville home for the holidays. Doctor Hitzig surprised many of his neighbors on Christmas Day when he visited them complete with Santa Claus make-up. He was accompanied on his tour by his father-in-law, Mr. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Heckerer entertained at dinner on Christmas Day. Their guests were Paul and Rosella Fiene, Emily Hartman and Mathilde Dressler.

Egon Hood and his wife, Edith Lorand, well-known concert violinist, entertained about 40 friends on Saturday evening at their home on the Bearsville road. Included were Gene Ryan, New York city; William Gilbert, Rachel Gallo, Tommy Weil, Joseph and Hallie St. Mary, Maria Chaser, who is the Hodd's holiday house guest, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chavez, Mr. and Mrs. John Striebel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hubbel, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Roland d'Albis, Mr. and Mrs. William Fochner, Mrs. Margaret Kenyon, and Mrs. Jack Bates.

Methodist Youths Convene

Cleveland, Dec. 30.—From all parts of the nation and from a dozen foreign countries, 10,000 delegates to the Methodist Youth Fellowship gathered here today for a four-day conference. The conference is one of the largest church conventions ever held in this city where Methodist youth started the Epworth League 59 years ago. It opens tonight and continues through Friday morning. The 10,000 delegates, ranging in age from 15 to 23, were selected from the 2,000,000 members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Miss America of 1947 is among the delegates. She is Miss Barbara Jo Walker, 21, of Memphis, Tenn., a Sunday school teacher who won the beauty title at Atlantic City last fall.

Trains Are Delayed

New York, Dec. 30.—Trains of the Long Island railroad were delayed at Penn Station, a station up to a half hour late at 8 p. m. today. A spokesman for the line attributed the delays to snowdrifts and ice on third rail contacts. Pennsylvania station officials reported Long Island trains were leaving the station up to 17 minutes late for Long Island points. The 7:18 a. m. train for Port Washington left at 7:35 a. m.

Monignor Named To Direct Charities For New York Area

New York, Dec. 30.—Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, announced last night that the Very Rev. Msgr. Christopher J. Weldon, assistant executive director, would succeed Msgr. Patrick A. O'Boyle, archbishop elect of Washington, as executive director of Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York, effective January 1.

The appointment was announced at a meeting of the cardinal's committee of the laity.

Archbishop Elect O'Boyle will be consecrated by Cardinal Spellman in St. Patrick's Cathedral on January 14, and will be installed as archbishop of Washington by the Rev. Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, apostolic delegate, in St. Matthew's Cathedral, Washington, on January 21.

Msgr. Weldon, who served as a U. S. Navy chaplain on an aircraft carrier in the Atlantic during World War II, was born on September 6, 1905, and was ordained to the priesthood on September 21, 1929.

Following studies at Catholic University, Washington, D. C., he was assigned to St. John's Church, White Plains, where he served as an assistant until 1930, when he was assigned to the Church of St. Francis, Mt. Kisco.

In 1931, he was appointed spiritual director at the Newman School, Lakewood, N. J., and in 1935 became assistant at St. John Chrysostom Church, the Bronx. In June 1936, he was assigned to Blessed Sacrament Church, Manhattan, where he served as an assistant until he joined the U. S. Navy as chaplain in 1942.

He was appointed master of ceremonies to Cardinal Spellman in 1946 and early this year was appointed assistant executive director of New York Catholic Charities. On November 20, 1947, he was raised to the rank of papal chamberlain with the title of Very Reverend Monsignor by Pope Pius XII.

The Archdiocese of New York comprises the city of New York and the counties of Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Sullivan, Ulster and Westchester.

Embargo Is Urged

Kansas City, Dec. 30.—The Methodist Federation for Social Action today urged that an embargo be placed "on missions or other military aid to China" and asked for the withdrawal of American military advisory groups from China. The action, in the form of resolutions, was taken at the federation's concluding session of a three-day meeting. A resolution introduced by Dr. Clyde E. Miller, New York, asked "withdrawal of the President's personal representative to the Vatican now holding the rank of ambassador." The resolution referred to Myron Taylor.

Idea 'Misunderstood'

Berlin, Dec. 30.—The political cartoonist of the official Soviet newspaper, Tagliche Rundschau, depicted today two Americans standing shoulder deep in what the Russian represented as New York city's snowfall. One says: "Well, Jim, it seems to me that our idea of a 'cold war' has been entirely misunderstood by the powers above."

HERE'S TO A HAPPY 1948 FOR ALL OUR GOOD FRIENDS!

We hope that 1948 will be for all of you a year of happiness and prosperity!
